

How our funds are spent:

Program Services - Expenses related directly to the programs to the hungry, homeless, and needy, but not limited to food, utilities, clothing, Direct Program expenses, insurance and salaries to staff who work directly in providing services to our clients.

Donor Development & Public Awareness Expenses - These are expenses related to fund raising, public education, and retention of current donors and development of new donors.

Administrative Expenses - These expenses include but are not limited to business management, financial record-keeping, and cash-flow budgeting of the entire organization. Generally, they are all expenses not directly related to the delivering of services to our clients.
